Section 2: Employment Questionnaire

Accepting personal tax deductible contributions

From 1 July 2022, anyone aged 67 to 74 (under 75) is no longer required to meet the previous work test criteria for personal and salary sacrificed contributions including non-concessional contributions made under the 'bring forward rule' (subject to existing contribution cap limits and eligibility criteria).

However the work test rule will continue to apply (for ages between 67 and 74) for personal deductible contributions.

Section 3: Information about collection of tax file numbers

We are required to tell you the following details before you provide your tax file number (TFN).

Your TFN is confidential, and you should know the following things before you decide to provide it:

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, legalsuper is authorised to collect, use and disclose your TFN.

legalsuper may disclose your TFN to another superannuation provider, when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request legalsuper, in writing, not to disclose your TFN to any other superannuation provider.

Declining to quote your TFN to legalsuper is not an offence. However giving your TFN to legalsuper will have the following advantages:

- legalsuper will be able to accept all permitted types of contributions to your account/s;
- other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, you will not pay more tax than you need to. This affects both contributions to your superannuation and benefit payments when you start drawing down your superannuation benefits; and
- it will make it much easier to find different superannuation accounts in your name so that you receive all your superannuation benefits when you retire.

The consequences of not providing your TFN may change in future as a result of legislative changes.

If you do tell us your TFN, we will treat it as confidential and use it for legal purposes, such as:

- to calculate tax on any Eligible Termination Payment you may be entitled to;
- to give your TFN to the relevant authority, if we are paying unclaimed money;
- to give your TFN to the Commissioner of Taxation if you receive a benefit; and
- if we transfer your benefits to another superannuation fund or a retirement savings account.

These purposes may change in future as a result of legislative changes. If you do not want us to do this, you can notify us in writing not to do so.

For more information, please contact your tax advisor or legalsuper administration.
